

What makes a good relationship?

- *When children are polite to each other.
- *When children support each other and love each other.
- *You are kind and happy towards each other.

Who is a bad relationship?

- *When children betray each other- they may tell something that a friend has told them in confidence.
- *Teasing and winding each other up.
- *Using nasty words towards each other.

What do we do if someone does not feel safe?

- *We go to them and support them if we can.
- *We would reassure them that it will be okay.
- *We would look after them.
- *We would tell a trusted adult in school.

Is there anywhere in school that you feel less safe?

- *The basketball court has leaves on and they can be slippery.
- *Where the wasp nest was in the summer.
- *The big playground as other children can bump into you.
- *Behind the compost bin by the shed, as children play behind this and the fence was broken. This has been fixed.
